

Rule of Law

Woke up this morning with somethin' in my craw –
seems it's gettin' popular to question our Rule of Law.
Justice is the foundation for our land of the free –
it applies to everyone – no exceptions, no “not me's”.

(Refrain)

Rule of Law. Rule of Law.
Right over wrong. Our eagle has claws.
Law of the land sings its serenade.
Mess with the U.S. – penance gets paid.
Rule of Law.

We all have opinions about how things run.
How we vote determines what we want done.
Let's not ignore the constitution at its very core – throw due process out the window, show liberty the door!

Courts are fair and honest. Backbone of our truth.
Innocent until guilty – that's when they find the proof.
Society's redemption when danger and trouble lurk.
Do the crime. Do the Time. That's the way it works.

(refrain)

(Mid8)

Stand up, America, for things that are right.
Equality. Integrity. Values that unite.
Rule of Law, can't withdraw from justice in the land.
Without Rule of Law – turmoil, chaos and quicksand.

(refrain)

Rule of Law must prevail.
Then the bad guys go to jail.
Rule of Law.
